KEEPING SILENCE

PSALM 62:5-8

“Tell me of Your compassion, O Lord my God, what You are to me. Say unto my soul, I am your salvation. So speak that I may hear. Behold, Lord, the ears of my heart are before You; open them, and say unto my soul, I am your salvation. When I hear, may I run and lay hold on You.”

CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM

Son of Daniel and Erika Castro

*APOSTLES' CREED

We join our voices together with Christians throughout the ages and across the world to proclaim these words:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

SONG OF RESPONSE

"JESUS, STRONG AND KIND"

CELEBRATION OF COMMUNION

As we celebrate communion this week, we are excited to again provide communion elements to those who would like to celebrate the Lord's Supper with us. There are small pre-filled and factory sealed cups of grape juice and individual packets of crackers (including a gluten free option) available in the narthex when you arrive. If you have any questions or need any assistance, please ask an usher. If you are joining us from home, please feel free to join in communion as well! This is the table of Christ, and he welcomes ALL who are trusting in him for their salvation. Come, drink deeply and eat heartily, the body and blood of Jesus Christ!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

EASTER SCHEDULE

KEEPING WATCH: TAKING EVERY HOUR CAPTIVE

This Easter, we invite you to keep watch with us as we make our way from Good Friday to Easter Sunday. We will be sharing a devotional resource with you that will guide you through the Holy Weekend. This guide offers a set prayer and scripture reading every three hours to mark Jesus' death, rest in the grave, and glorious resurrection. The guide begins at Noon on Good Friday as Jesus is hung on the cross and invites you to pause every three hours until 6am on Easter Sunday as we celebrate the resurrection. You may want to set an alarm in your phone for 10-15 minutes prior to each time of prayer so that you can get ready. We encourage you to pray together with others in your home, if that is possible. Gather together in a set place. Consider doing something to set this time and space aside, perhaps lighting a candle and spending a few moments in silence before and after. The purpose of spending a few minutes in scripture and prayer every three hours isn't to say we did it; it's to charge the rest of our day with that same presence of God.

HOLY WEEK STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross started as a practice of pilgrims who walked the final steps of Jesus in Jerusalem and was eventually brought home for those who couldn't make the journey. The practice invites us to contemplate Jesus' death and resurrection more deeply and intimately. We invite the congregation and community to stop by the church at any point during Holy Week (4/10--4/18) to walk our outdoor Stations of the Cross installation from artist Scott Erickson. Start in front of the Education Building and follow the stations in order along the brick pathway to the sanctuary and back to the parking lot along the sidewalk. Take your time and pray as you go.
